The Tendrils of Atazoth

The Tendrils of the blind idiot god Atazoth who is the collective consciousness of humanity made conscious and a sociopathic evil operating since time immemorial. Manifests into causal via his Earth-bound Representative (formerly Shaitan) but not the Dark God Noctifer who is akin to the Demon Prince (not Dark Goddess) Kali and as Vindex in the form of the Kalki avatara.

From the infinite ebb and flow of Atazoth numerous universes are born of a limited duration of causal time. He floats upon the limitless ocean of infinite bliss where via his navel sprouts a dark lotus creating via an artisan or demiurgos Brahman a new causal universe. Upon which he is a part of every living entity via the spiritual spark of Lucifer.

There is only the ebb and flow of Azoth (water) and the everlasting fire. However, this is primarily a distortion as there is only Azoth which is both fire and water or “fire-water”.

These mysteries must be left to the individual Neonate to solve.
